Gender Equality, Disability, and Social Inclusion (GEDSI) is a community-based learning program.

The GEDSI Fall Program which will be held by the Faculty of Economics and Business (FEB) UNAIR in collaboration with the World University Association for Community Development (WUACD) is one of the activities to facilitate student activities in women's empowerment and business development activities as part of WUACD Summit in Conjunction with International Conference on Community Development 2022 to utilize digital economy.

The targets of this activity are Universitas Airlangga students, international students, and women groups in Surabaya. The aim of this program is to engage students, business world, and other stakeholders to empower women in developing entrepreneurship skills and other related skills to enhance their capabilities.

ABOUT US

COURSE FEATURES

GEDSI Fall Program is a community-based learning program. Community-based learning is a teaching and learning strategy that integrates academic courses and meaningful community engagement with social reflection to enrich the learning experience with a greater emphasis on reciprocal learning and reflection.
