ABOUT ANKARA

Ankara has been the capital of Turkey since October 13, 1923. The city center of Ankara is the second most crowded area of Turkey and among the first 40 of the world. It can be considered as the heart of Turkey due to its proximity to Turkey's geographical center and its function in Turkey's progress. On the other hand, Ankara is one of the places in Turkey where on which several civilizations in history lived, such as the Hittites, Phrygians, Lydians, and Persians.

Spring and autumn are generally mild, but during both seasons sudden hot and cold spells frequently occur in the region. Rainfall occurs mostly during the spring and autumn. Because of Ankara's high altitude and its dry summers, night temperatures in summer months are not so high. Ankara's annual average precipitation is fairly low at 415 mm (16 in), nevertheless has rains fall during the whole year. The monthly mean temperature ranges from 23.6 °C in July to 1°C in January, with an annual mean of 11.7 °C. Average highest temperature is measured generally in July and August with 30.3 °C and the average lowest temperature is measured generally in January and February with -3 °C.

ARRIVAL

For the beneficiaries of Erasmus+ incoming staff mobility, METU International Cooperations Office does not have a pick-up service, unfortunately. But it is quite easy to arrive at METU campus and there are variety of transportation tools, as explained below.

Ankara International Airport (Esenboğa) is about 35 km away from METU campus. Getting to campus is easy but takes some time. Depending on your flight, you may have to go through PASSPORT CONTROL and CUSTOMS INSPECTION in Istanbul or Ankara. Bear in mind that personnel may not be able to speak English well but you can still be helpful as they are accustomed to people who do not speak Turkish.

If you go through customs in Istanbul, you will need to transfer from International Flights Terminal to Domestic Flights Terminal. Responsible personnel will direct you to the domestic flights' terminal; check the direction signs as well.

You may need to exchange some of your foreign currency for Turkish Lira as soon as you arrive in Turkey. Bank windows are available in both airports immediately before or after passport control. Exchanging money also can be done at the PTT, open 24 hours, at both airports. It is advisable to have at least US$ 200-300 in cash for your first few days in Ankara.

From Ankara airport to city center, you may want to take a taxi or use shuttle buses (called HAVAS) or public buses called EGO with route number 442. If you wish to take a taxi, metered taxis are also available from the airport to the city. If you choose this option, say "ODTÜ, lütfen" (METU, please) to the driver. Taxi fares to central locations within city are approximately US$ 50-70 depending on your arrival time (arrivals after 11:30 p.m. means you pay night fare to the taxi you take, so the taxi fare increases).

By law, all taxis in Turkey are metered. You pay what is on the meter; tipping is not customary. Taxi fare from HAVAS City Terminal (Ulus area) or from ASTI (Intercity Bus Station) to METU (ODTÜ in Turkish) campus or to most hotels will be US$ 10-15. As drivers usually do not speak English, you should have your destination address on a paper to show the driver.

FROM ANKARA ESENBAGA AIRPORT

A-HAVAS Buses (Private Company)

Services between airport and the city terminal will be scheduled according to the arrival times of domestic and international flights.

You can check the hours from here: <https://havas.net/en/bus-services> in the bus service points section. You will choose from Ankara Esenboga Airport to Ankara-AŞTİ. Then you will select the date. Then you can see the bus schedule

Route: Ankara Esenboğa Airport, Çubuk, Pursaklar, Hasköy, Keçiören, Etlik, Havaş City Terminal, ASTI (Ankara Intercity Bus Terminal-Coach Station)

Note: Even if there is one passenger going to the coach station, the coaches set off to ASTI just afterwards the other passengers are dropped in HAVAS City Terminal.

Passenger Dropping Spots: HAVAS shuttles drop passengers at Çubuk intersection, Pursaklar, Hasköy, Aydınlikevler, Keçiören Bridge and Etlik Intersection on the way to city center.

Arrival time: Approximately 30 minutes to HAVAS City Terminal and 45 minutes to ASTI Coach Station

Ticket fee: 50 TL (VAT incl.), around US$2

If you want to take HAVAS shuttle buses to the city center, we suggest you to drop in ASTI Coach Station if you are coming to METU directly since ASTI is just 5 km to our campus. If you arrive after midnight and/or want to stay in a hotel for one night, you may also get off at HAVAS City Terminal in Ulus area which is just adjacent to Ankara's main football stadium (19 Mayıs Stadyumu) where there are many cheap hotels.

If you get off at ASTI Coach Station, you may want to take a taxi to METU campus. Our campus is about 5 km away from ASTI towards west-side of the city. Each time University members enter METU campus, they are asked to show your METU ID card. Since you will not have a card, please have your letter of acceptance ready to show the guards when entering the campus.
